

DEATH RAIDS CLUB; CLOSES GAME THAT RESISTED POLICE

Leader of Knickerbocker Hotel
Orchestra Stricken at Table of Antiquarians.

PLAYERS FLEE IN PANIC.

Musician's Daughter Waits
Happy School Ceremony in Her Graduation Finery.

The doors of the Antiquarian Club at No. 66 St. Mark's place, Manhattan, were not open to-day. The shades were drawn and the only sign of life about the place was the policeman patrolling up and down at the foot of the well-worn steps. The Antiquarian Club figures conspicuously on "Form 23"—the suspected gambling house list—and last night a man fell dead in the place. The policeman on duty was had enough, thought the regular patrons of the Antiquarian; but the grim shadow that fell upon it when Julius Schottoff, leader of the orchestra at the Hotel Knickerbocker, made his final cashing in has proved more effective in closing the place than all the surveillance to which the police have subjected the old brownstone rookery of late.

Schottoff, a heavily built man, with long dark hair and about forty-eight years old, last night brushed past Patrolman Robert Drummond and ascended the steps of the Antiquarian's assembling place. A panel in the door all open and the next minute Schottoff slipped through the cautiously opened door with the air of a man who feels himself at home.

DEATH OPENS DOOR BARRER
AGAINST POLICE.

Drummond resumed his drilling up and down, occasionally giving his stereotyped warning to the "regulars" as they passed by him and into their haunts. Half an hour passed and then a white-faced man came tottering down the steps and rushed up to Drummond.

"Hey, a guy's just passed out inside," was the way he broke the news of Schottoff's death.

The patrolman summoned an ambulance from St. Mark's Hospital. The man who had been seen from the Antiquarian's roost ran for Dr. Max Sippel of No. 43 St. Mark's place. Then for the first time since Jan. 3, the Antiquarian's—formerly the "Wag" Club—was entered by a policeman.

Drummond found Schottoff lying on his back close to a table at which he had been standing watching a four-handed auction pinhead game.

"He just walked in, stood there a while and then heeled over," volunteered one of the Antiquarians.

"Heart, I guess," said another. "His was complaining a lot about it lately."

In the mean time they were waiting for Schottoff at the Hotel Knickerbocker and up at his flat at No. 66 Southern Boulevard. Mrs. Schottoff was waiting, too. The musician's daughter, Coralie, had just been graduated at the Morris High School and she was trying to get her father on the phone at the hotel to tell him all about the events of the afternoon.

Schottoff was to have accompanied his wife and daughter to the school, but he declared that he had to play at a "ten concert" and left the house, after making his daughter promise to call him up at the hotel.

DAUGHTER, IN GRADUATION FINERY, WAITS IN VAIN.

And so the musician's wife and his daughter, in her graduation finery, sat hour after hour waiting and wondering. It was almost midnight when a patrolman from the Tremont avenue station came and told them what had happened at the Antiquarian.

On Schottoff's body were found $7.77. He wore much jewelry and his clothes were good and well cut.

"He was an old timer," said the patrolman on duty in front of the Antiquarian to an Evening World reporter to-day.

"Julius was all that a husband and father should be. He never touched a card in his life," declared Mrs. Schottoff in her Bronx flat at almost the same time.

"Well, I guess this fixes the Antiquarian for good, and there'll be one address scratched from Form 23," said Captain Frank Rodrig of the 25th street police station.

Kansas Man Who Back in 1896 Vowed to Let His Hair Grow Until Democrat Was Elected President

He Will Hear Wilson Take the Oath, Then Hike to a Barber Shop.

Some unfortunate Washington, D. C., barber is in for an awful experience.

It will fall to him on March 4 next to remove the hirsute superfluity of E. F. Boxwell of Holington, Kan., who has not heard the snip of the shears nor the click of the clippers in the vicinity of his home since the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1896.

It was on that fatal day that Mr. Boxwell, learning that William McKinley had been elected President, took a solemn oath by the solemn feet of Jerry Simpson that he would refrain from getting his hair cut until a Democrat should enter the White House as Chief Executive of the Nation. He has kept his vow.

Of course it was not particularly hard for Mr. Boxwell to let his hair grow in Kansas, where whiskers and capillary luxuriance generally are part of the landscape. But, gosh, how he does dread that trip from Kansas City to Washington.

A good seat in the grandstand has been reserved for Mr. Boxwell and he will witness the ceremony when Woodrow Wilson takes the oath of office. Then he will hike to a barber shop and undergo the operation for the removal of a hair accumulation of sixteen years and four months standing.

Since Christine Mulhull was the defendant and she and six of the others are Wormer's sisters-in-law. The other of the eight is Wormer's wife.

"This is a family row," explained Wormer to Magistrate Appleton, as a part of preliminary. Mrs. Mulhull and her seven sisters nodded approvingly.

"I married one of them and have had trouble ever since,"

All eight sisters seemed eager to answer at once to this, but Magistrate Appleton restrained them. He also put a soft pedal on any public airing of the quarrel, much to the disappointment of court habitués.

He gave no need of going further into this matter. Let Mrs. Mulhull apologize to Mr. Wormer and then I'll dismiss the summons.

Mrs. Mulhull was willing, so was Wormer, so were the seven sisters.

The nine departed together. Court attaches didn't even discover where Mrs. Mulhull lives or what was the cause of the feud.

ROBIN ON ISLAND ABOUT 2 MINUTES RETURNS TO TOMBS

books this morning. Consequently all the time he spends in the Tombs counts against the term of his imprisonment. If he can be kept in the Tombs on motions and appeals for a year, he will not have to go to the island at all, and must be released at the expiration of ten months—which the sentence amounts to with good time deducted.

THE WRIT KEPT SECRET UNTIL SERVED ON WARDEN.

Justice Goff signed the writ of habeas corpus last night. It was kept a secret until it was served, indicating that there was design in allowing Robin to be taken to the penitentiary. Had the writ been served as Robin was leaving the Tombs, he might have gained what would not have counted on this sentence.

While it has been the custom of the Sheriff and his deputies to stop at Police Headquarters with prisoners bound from the Tombs to penal institutions for the purpose of having them photographed and measured for the Rogues' Gallery, the Police Department apparently wanted to make sure that no exception would be made in the case of Robin. It is evident that the police officials were not pleased by the publication of a story, which is said to have come from the District Attorney's office, that some influence presented the pictures of Lieut. Becker, Charles H. Hyde, William J. Cummins and Joseph H. Fleischmann from going into the Headquarters collection known as the Rogues' Gallery.

Robin's testimony convicted Hyde, Fleischmann and Cummins. He has been the District Attorney's favorite prisoner. During his twenty-three months of commitment to the Tombs he has been allowed what amounted to practical freedom from 5 o'clock in the morning until 4 o'clock at night. The District Attorney gave Robin an office in the Criminal Courts Building, and allowed him to visit his lawyer's office in the financial district.

MADE GUESS OF HIM FOR THE ROGUES' GALLERY.

All of which may account for a note which reached Sheriff Harbarger this morning. The note read:

Sir—Will you please have Joseph G. Robin brought to Police Headquarters to-day to be photographed, measured, etc., en route from the City Prison to State Prison.

Yours very truly,
GEORGE S. DOUGHERTY,
Second Deputy Commissioner.

The Sheriff on the witness stand in the Curran Aldermanic inquiry yesterday declared that the Police Commissioner and the Police Department are his subordinates. Possibly this assertion didn't make much of a hit at Headquarters. At any rate the situation was put up to the Sheriff by the Deputy Commissioner's letter. But Robin would have been taken to Headquarters anyhow, letter or no letter, according to Sheriff Harbarger.

BALKAN ALLIES TO RENEW WAR IN FOUR DAYS

Armistice With Turks Declared
Ended in Note Delivered at Constantinople.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 30.—The Balkan allies to-day gave notice of the termination of the armistice, the period of four days to start at seven o'clock this evening.

The armistice which has been in operation since Dec. 3 was signed on that day by Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro on the one side and Turkey on the other. Greece was never a party to the cessation of hostilities. She has continued fighting both on land and sea. The Montenegrins also have come into conflict with the garrison of Scutari on several occasions in spite of the truce.

The Turkish Government displays a spirit of compromise in its reply to the note handed to it by the representatives of the European Powers on Jan. 12. The response was presented by Mahmud Sharif Pasha, the Grand Vizier, to Marquis Johann von Pallavicini, the dean of the diplomatic corps in the Turkish capital, this forenoon.

The Porte stipulates for the retention by Turkey of those quarters of the fortress of Adrianople in which the holy shrines are situated. It proposes to leave in the hands of the Powers the disposal of the land on the right bank of the Maritsa River which runs through Adrianople. At the same time the Ottoman Government consents to the dismantling of the fortification of that city.

In reference to the Turkish islands in the Aegean Sea the document insists on the maintenance of Turkish sovereignty there, owing to the proximity of the islands to the Turkish mainland, but it intimates the readiness of the Ottoman Government to leave the settlement of the insular regime to the Powers.

JUSTICE STEINERT TAKEN TO SMITH INFIRMARY.

Sudden Seizure in Staten Island
Courtroom Due to Congestion of Lungs.

Justice Steinert, who was taken ill while sitting in the Court of Special Sessions at St. George, Staten Island, yesterday, was removed to the S. R. Smith Infirmary at New Brighton to-day. Dr. C. E. Pearson, who was called to attend Justice Steinert at the hospital, said that the patient to-day and then advised his removal.

The physician said that Justice Steinert's lungs seemed to be somewhat congested, but his condition did not appear to be serious. He thought, however, that it would be wise for him to go to the hospital for better attention.

Justice Steinert heard several cases yesterday before he was stricken. He was finally compelled to retire to a private room, but soon returned to the court. Then he was seized with a chill and was taken to the hospital. His family was summoned from Manhattan and remained with him last night.

BAR OUT BIRD PLUMAGE AND PROTECT HUSBANDS.

Feathers at $100 An Ounce a Menace, Congress Tariff Committee Is Told.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The fight to bar out feathers from the country in the interest of the National Audubon Society and other organizations favoring the protection of birds, was led at the tariff hearing to-day by Dr. William Hornaday for the New York Ecological Society. He urged a specific prohibition against the importation of plumage of wild birds for millinery.

T. Gilbert Pearson of New York, Secretary of the National Association of Audubon Societies, endorsed the hearing by suggesting that it was not only a matter of protection for the birds, but of protection for husbands, as he said, women would buy feathers at $100 an ounce.

TRAPPED BY FIRE IN EXPRESS CAR, LEAPS FOR LIFE

Messenger Jumps From Side
Door of Train Speeding
Through Stamford.

Special to The Evening World.
STAMFORD, Conn., Jan. 30.—Caught in a burning express car, with flames on all sides of him and the bell rope burned in two, Robert Wright of South Norwalk, an Adams Express messenger, leaped from the carboard Springfield Express at South Beach early to-day. The train was running through the South Beach station at twenty-five miles an hour at the time. Wright fell against the station wall and was bruised in one leg, but was not injured seriously.

The fire, the cause of which has not yet been ascertained, destroyed or damaged goods worth thousands of dollars. The exact loss cannot be known until an inventory is made. An estimate by a person in a position to know placed the value of the car's contents at $50,000 in goods and cash.

The car, one of the "blind bagmen" variety—that is, with both ends closed and only side doors—was bound for Hartford. It was loaded from end to end with miscellaneous express matter. Packages and trunks were piled as high as the ceiling of the car. Very few packages or bundles escaped damage or destruction and the inside of the car was damaged considerably.

The money was in a safe and escaped damage. There were two large trunks filled with jewelry, and while the outside of the trunks was scorched and burned, it is claimed that the contents were not injured.

A collie dog, said to have been a blue-blooded animal worth $400, was burned to death. There were many boxes of cigars, cigarettes, men's and women's clothing, expensive feathers—in fact, about everything imaginable, in the shipment.

The car was cut off here and the local fire department was called out to put out the fire.

FEEL SHAKY, BILIOUS, HEADACHY, OR CONSTIPATED? TAKE CASCARETS

Sick headaches! Always trace them to a liver, delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache. Cascarets remove the cause by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on and out of the bowels. The effect is almost instantaneous. Ladies, who are sensitive organisms, are especially prone to sick headaches, need not suffer, for they can be quickly cured by Cascarets. One taken to-night will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too—they love them because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used, the very principle of Cascarets is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder trouble or rheumatism, such as puffing swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired, and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Cascarets will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Cascarets at a trifling cost from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.
